Warning Regarding Fraudulent Investment Solicitations
Misusing the Names of Our Company and CEO

On November 26, 2025, following receipt of a report that investment solicitations had been made using the name of our company and our CEO, Yuji Kimura, we posted a notice entitled “Warning Regarding Solicitations Misusing Our Company Name” on our website.

Thereafter, we have continued to receive reports of suspected fraudulent solicitations and other suspected fraudulent activities carried out through similar methods by individuals impersonating Yuji Kimura. As such, we are reissuing this warning.

Our company and its officers and employees have no involvement in such solicitations or activities. We will never use personal email addresses, LINE accounts, or other personal social media accounts to send messages relating to our business. Furthermore, our officers and employees will never use such accounts to request transfers and remittances of funds, or to request personal information, bank account details, or similar information.

We urge you to exercise extreme caution if you receive any such message from a person claiming to represent our company or any of our officers or employees, or if you are approached with an investment solicitation through social media or any other channel. Do not reply to the message or comply with any request to transfer or remit funds.

Relevant government agencies and other authorities have also issued warnings regarding such fraudulent solicitations and activities. We encourage you to review the information available on their respective websites.

Please contact your nearest police station if you have suffered any loss or harm as a result of such solicitations or activities. As stated above, neither our company nor any of our officers or employees has any involvement in such activities. We regret that we are unable to respond to inquiries or provide assistance in relation to individual incidents, and we appreciate your understanding in this regard.
